

Pre-Judgment: Basic Steps to Small Claims Service

“Service” or “service of process” are the legal terms used to describe the act of giving notice of a lawsuit or court hearing to another party. There are several different methods and very specific time limits by which you must have the other party served. The type of service you are required to use depends on the type of forms you are filing. If you do not have the other party served properly (within the correct time limits and using the correct method), the court cannot hear or decide your case.

Notice: This packet describes only the most common methods of service available for use. Please seek legal assistance if you would like to explore additional/alternative methods or the forms you are filing are not listed.

Any forms mentioned in this basic guide may be obtained from the Clerk of Court or online at <http://www.wicourts.gov/forms1/circuit.htm>.

Motions filed for reasons other than those listed above (no specific court self-help forms).	Mail	Not less than 8 business days before the motion date.

WARNING: Copies, NOT original documents, should only be given to the other party. The originals (if in your possession) and proof of service need to be returned to court after the other party has been served.

Service

There are five basic ways to have the other party served:

1. Private Process Server

You may make arrangements with a private process server to have the other party personally served. Contact individual companies for fees and procedural information. To find a private process server in your or the other party's area, you may look under "Process Service" using a phone or internet directory or by going to <http://www.iprocessservers.com>. Proof of service and a set of the documents which were served must be returned to court as soon as possible. Proof of service is what you get back from the process server and may be called Affidavit of Service, Certificate of Service, or Proof of Service. Remember to keep a copy for your records.

2. Sheriff's Department

The Sheriff's Department in the county in which the individual to be served resides may serve the other party. Proof of service and a set of the documents which were served must be returned to court as soon as possible. Proof of service is what you get back from the sheriff and may be called Affidavit of Service, Certificate of Service, or Proof of Service. Remember to keep a copy for your records.

3. Service by Another Person

Any other person who is age 18 or over, is a resident of Wisconsin, Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, or Minnesota, and is not a party to the action, can also serve the other party.

You: complete the caption of the Affidavit of Service form (SC-5100V or SC-5110V or SC-5120V).

- Other person: The person serving the paperwork signs his or her name (for example, on the back or in any blank space) on the document(s) being served. That person must also indicate the time, date, place, manner of service, and upon whom service is being made and then gives the document(s) to the party being served.
- Other person: Completes the bottom portion of the Affidavit of Service.
- Other person: Signs it under oath in the presence of a notary public.
- You: return the Affidavit of Service form and a set of the documents served, as soon as possible to the Clerk of Courts. Remember to keep a copy for your records.

4. Posting and Mailing in Eviction Actions

In eviction actions where the defendant cannot be personally served after reasonable diligence:

- You: complete the caption of the Affidavit of Service form (SC-5100V).
- The Sheriff's Department, a private process server, or another person: post a copy of the summons and complaint onto some part of the premises where it may be conveniently read at least 7 business days prior to the return date.

AND

- You, the Sheriff's Department, a private process server, or another person: mail a copy of the summons and complaint at least 5 business days prior to the return date, to the defendant at the last known address, even if it is the premises which are the subject of the action.
- The Sheriff's Department, a private process server, or another person: Completes the bottom portion of the Affidavit of Service (SC-5100V).

LAST RESORT

Before attempting this last resort, you should consider seeking legal assistance. There are specific and complicated rules that must be followed to successfully serve a party by publication.

5. Service by Publication

Service by Publication is a last resort and can only be used if you failed to have the other party served by one of the methods above. You have a responsibility to make every effort to make personal service if possible, which includes gathering reasonably available information from family and friends to try and determine the other party's location.

The option of Service by Publication is only available to you if you can answer yes to all of the following:

- You have tried personal service through the Sheriff's Department, a private process server, or another person.

- You have given the Sheriff's Department, the private process server, or the other person as much information as possible to help them find the other party.
- The Sheriff's Department, private process server, or another person cannot find the other party after a diligent search.
- You have been given an Affidavit of Due Diligence/Not Found/Attempted Service by the Sheriff's Department, private process server, or the other person stating that the other party could not be found. Keep this affidavit.

Procedural Checklist

1. Prepare a cover letter like the following example.

[Date]

Defendant's Name
Last Known Address
City, State ZIP

RE: Case Title [Name of Plaintiff vs. Name of Defendant]
Case No.: Court Case Number [07SC123]

Dear [Defendant's Name]:

Enclosed please find a Publication Summons and a Summons and Complaint which I have filed in the _____ County Circuit Court.

Sincerely,

Your name

2. Make a copy of the cover letter for your records.

3. Mail to the defendant at his/her last known address the original cover letter and a copy of the Publication Summons and the Summons and Complaint. (If the mailing is returned to you, keep it for your court hearing.)

4. Complete the Affidavit of Mailing (SC-5130V).

5. Complete the Publication Summons (SC-5160V).

6. Take the Publication Summons to the newspaper in the municipality where the defendant currently lives, or where his/her last known address is located. There will be a fee, which cannot be waived by the court. The Publication Summons must be published one time in the newspaper and is considered served on the first day of publication.

Note: There are official newspapers in many municipalities, but generally you can use any newspaper regularly published at least once a week in the city, village, or town where the defendant lives, or you think he/she may live.

7. The Newspaper will provide you with a document as proof of the publication and an invoice.
8. Take the following documents to the Court, as soon as possible or on the next court date (follow local court rules) and keep a copy for your records.
- Affidavit of Due Diligence/Not Found/Attempted Service provided by the Sheriff's Department or private process server.(If not done already)
 - Your cover letter
 - Affidavit of Mailing or certified/registered mail receipt
 - Proof of the Service by Publication from the newspaper
 - Copy of the invoice from the newspaper

Service by Mail

Serving documents on the other party by mail is allowed for certain types of forms. If service by mail is allowed, you must:

- Mail copies of the documents to the other party.
- Sign a sworn affidavit called the Affidavit of Mailing (SC-5130V) in the presence of a Notary Public.
- Return the Affidavit of Mailing (SC-5130V) and a set of the documents that were mailed to the Court as soon as possible. Remember to keep a copy for your records.
